

2022 Art Exhibitions

Ann Rudd Art center

December 11-January 22: Sue Switzer Lifetime Exhibition

Opening will include a celebratory reception honoring the artist's lifetime works.

February: "All in Black and White" Open Call for Artists 18 and Older!

Art and photography accepted in black and white. Artists are encouraged to focus on composition and balance through black, white and shades of grey. Mediums on canvas, mixed media, pencil, ink and photographs are eligible.

March: Membership Event Featuring the Member Art & Photography Show

We think of our membership event as a new beginning each year. Our Member Show is an exhibit highlighting the talent of new and returning members who have joined the Dale County Council of Arts & Humanities for another year.

April: Blues Music Festival and Art Exhibit. Music themed posters and art will be featured. This event is still in the planning stages. More details to come.

May/June: A Duo Exhibition featuring artists, Deshonna Pruitt and Rob Childree. This collaborative show will include fine art, photography and digital art.

July/August: Annual Regional Art Exhibition: Open Call for Artists 18 and Older!

This exhibition is meant to challenge experienced and up and coming artists to bring out their best work. We accept the following mediums: painting, drawing, mixed media, and 3-dimensional installations within size requirements. Prospectus will have details.

September/October: Tim Richardson Lifetime Show

Tim Richardson was associated with the Art Center's exhibits and events, contributing to the arts in numerous ways through the years. He taught free art classes for kids, all ages, on Saturday mornings and worked out of his resident studio upstairs at the Rudd Art Center. Tim's work is well known throughout the area.

November: "Spirit of Service" - Exhibit Honoring Military Veterans.

Open Call to Artists 18 and Older!. We will accept submissions based on a theme. More details later.

December: To be determined.
